LB 1112 requires any local governing entity that requires a permit for placing communications infrastructure on any pole or tower to publish certain information on its website. A local governing entity shall not charge a fee exceeding the reasonable cost of issuing a permit. Fees shall not exceed $100 per application. Third-Party reviewers shall not assess any charges to an applicant and access to any pole or tower for communications infrastructure shall not be denied unreasonably.

Within five days of receiving an application, local governing entities shall provide written notification to the applicant confirming such receipt, including whether or not the application is complete or incomplete. Applications shall be approved or denied within thirty days after receipt.

No fiscal impact.
