ARCH: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen. Welcome to the George W. Norris Legislative Chamber for the twenty-fifth day of the One Hundred Eighth Legislature, First Session. Our chaplain for today is Senator Erdman. Please rise.

ERDMAN: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Father, we thank you for this opportunity to come here today and perform the act of government which you created. We thank you so much for that. We just pray that as you make those decisions today, they would be pleasing to you. And today, Lord, we ask you would be with those people in the snow areas that are working difficult, difficult situations to feed their livestock and take care of their animals. We just pray you be with them. We do thank you for the moisture that you sent that way. We appreciate that. And we don't want to be negligent and to forget to say that. Thank you for that. We also thank you that you have brought us here to do the job that you've intended us to do. So we pray that you would help us to do that in a way that would be pleasing not only to you, but helpful for those in the state of Nebraska. And Lord, we've come to the place where we call good evil and evil good. Help us to understand that is not your intention. Help us to do what is right in your eyes and what's pleasing to you. We pray also that you bless all those who work with us here in the Legislature, the pages and all those other people who do their jobs so that we can do ours. We pray you bless those as well. And we thank you for that. In Jesus' name, Amen.

ARCH: I recognize Senator Moser for the Pledge of Allegiance.

MOSER: Please join me in the Pledge of Allegiance. I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

ARCH: Thank you. I call to order the twenty-fifth day of the One Hundred Eighth Legislature, First Session. Senators, please record your presence. Roll call. Mr. Clerk, please record.

CLERK: There is a quorum present, Mr. President.

ARCH: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Are there any corrections for the Journal?

CLERK: I have no corrections this morning.

ARCH: Thank you. Are there any messages, reports or announcements?
