SENATOR MARVEL: Mr. Clerk, I'd like to announce that since we're adjourning now that the Appropriations Committee will meet at 11:00 this morning down in Room 1003.

CLERK: Appropriations Committee will meet at 11:00 this morning in Room 1003.

PRESIDENT: So that we can get these -- we're adjourning so early, some other chairman might wish to move up their meetings. Are there any other announcements before we have the vote on adjournment? This is just nature of committee hearings and so forth. Seeing none we're ready for the vote. All in favor of adjournment signify by saying aye. Contrary. We are adjourned until 10:00 in the morning.

Adjourned.
