PRESIDENT: Is Senator Dickinson in the Chamber? Would you approach the President's chair please, Senator. I'd like the attention of the body for this ceremony. Would you come up here please, Senator Dickinson. I am sure all of you are aware of the tremendous high honor that Senator Dickinson got in yesterday's metropolitan daily newspaper. It isn't often that a member of this body is the subject of a cartoon. In view of this, the Governor of the state of Nebraska has asked me to award you an Admiralship in the Nebraska Navy, Senator.

SENATOR DICKINSON: Thank you sir. I appreciate that very much.

PRESIDENT: Congratulations, Senator.

SENATOR DICKINSON: May I say a few words.

PRESIDENT: If you are not too choked up.

SENATOR DICKINSON: I am not.

PRESIDENT: That's enough.

SENATOR DICKINSON: I would like to remind the body that at least I can't be accused of leaving anyone up that proverbial creek without a paddle.
