SENATOR MARESH: Mr. President, I did not vote on this bill so I move that it be reconsidered.

PRESIDENT: Alright, there is a motion to reconsider 394.

SENATOR MARESH: Mr. Pres....

CLERK: (mike not activated) voted aye on 394, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Alright, I have a light on from Senator George.

SENATOR GEORGE: Mr. President, a question to the Chair. Since we want to be fair and we want to consider everyones preference bill, mine was killed about 2 months ago in committee, can I have it discussed here?

PRESIDENT: No.

SENATOR GEORGE: That is not fair.

PRESIDENT: I know I'm not fair. Senator Schmit.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Mr. President, I think that your pretty fair, I move to reconsider 394. I did not vote.

PRESIDENT: Senator Maresh is OK.

CLERK: Senator Schmit voted aye.

PRESIDENT: Wasn't Maresh alright?

CLERK: No, he was mad too, he voted aye.

PRESIDENT: What is your blood type? Do you qualify Senator Schmit? Your out. Ahhhh....were getting.... Senator Cavanaugh.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: How are you recognizing people?

PRESIDENT: As fast as I can. Your recognized.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: You have no motion to reconsider, right?

PRESIDENT: No.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: I move we adjourn again.

PRESIDENT: Alright there is a motion to adjourn. Record your vote. Please vote promptly. Record.

CLERK: 14 ayes, 14 nays.

PRESIDENT: The Chair breaks the tie. We are adjourned.
