That is all, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: If you will look on your worksheet, we have a whole series of bills that are bracketed for today, but under the Speaker's rule we are going to commence with those that are bracketed for a date uncertain commencing with LB 91. With your permission, the Chair and the Clerk will proceed in a fashion whereby we will first inquire if you want your bill up for consideration, and if you say no, then it is up to you to decide whether to leave it bracketed for a date uncertain or bracket it to a date certain. Otherwise, we will pass over it or we will consider it. It is up to you, but that will be before the Clerk reads it. Senator Burbach.
