

LB 275, 394

January 9, 1976

PRESIDENT: Specifically, what is your request, Senator?

CLERK: For unanimous consent to print amendments in the Journal.

SENATOR CLARK: Specifically, I would like to have these printed in the Journal and rebracket the bill until they are printed.

PRESIDENT: We have asked unanimous consent and it was granted. Thank you, Senator Clark.

CLERK: LB 394.

PRESIDENT: LB 394.

CLERK: Mr. President, there is a series of amendments on LB 394.

PRESIDENT: Senator Murphy.

SENATOR MURPHY: Please, can we throw some dirt on that thing and keep it from bobbing up?

CLERK: Bracket it to a date certain.

SENATOR MURPHY: Bracket it for today, no, sir. Bracket it indefinitely.

CLERK: No, for a date certain.

PRESIDENT: If it is indefinite, it is going to pop up. How about March 31, how does that appeal to you?

SENATOR MURPHY: No, let's make it March 1st.

PRESIDENT: All right. Request for unanimous consent to bracket LB 394 until March 1. Is there an objection. Seeing none, it shall be done.

CLERK: That is all of Select File, Mr. President.
