

wanted you to know that the reception line is there so that you can tell others and you will probably wish to go through it too. Thank you. Mr. Clerk, are you ready for the introduction of new bills?

CLERK: Yes, Mr. President, I am. Mr. President, I have a series of new bills. (Read LB 1 by title for the first time. See page 54 of the Legislative Journal.) I might indicate, Mr. President, that that is a Revisor's bill. LB 2, also a Revisor's bill offered by Senator Lamb. (Read by title for the first time.) LB 3 offered by Senator Lamb as chairman of the Board. (Read by title for the first time.) LB 4 by Senator Haberman. (Read by title for the first time. See page 54 of the Legislative Journal.) (Read LB 5 - 18 by title for the first time.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: Ladies and gentlemen, it isn't often that I interrupt the Clerk for a special reason but if you will grant me a little bit of privilege this morning, I want to introduce to you the Mayor of Scottsbluff, Nebraska, Don Overman. He didn't come down for any special reason as far as the Legislature was concerned, I understand, but he is in town to visit with some of the people having to do with city government. So would you welcome Mr. Don Overman, please. Thank you. Thank you, Pat.

CLERK: (Read LB 19 - 68 by title for the first time. See pages 53-67 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: Ladies and gentlemen, if you have bills that you wish to get in today, please bring them forward as soon as possible so that we get it to printing then as soon as possible. We will be here a few more minutes but if you have something hanging and want us to hang onto it, you get it here, fine, but we do encourage you to get them in as soon as possible today.

EASE

SPEAKER NICHOL: . . . (Mike not turned on immediately.) . . . for a while. I have asked Clerk O'Donnell to refresh our memories as to how long we can introduce and how long we can introduce unlimited number of bills and the length of time in which bills may be introduced so that your memories will be refreshed as mine needs to be as to what the program is in introducing bills. Emil, can you hear me back there? Okay, thank you. (Mike not turned on immediately.) . . . as to the introduction of bills and so forth, please.

CLERK: Mr. President, at the Executive Board meeting in
