SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Sieck, did you wish the floor? On LB 15? You do not wish to talk to it?

CLERK: Your amendment is still pending, Senator. Do you want to withdraw your amendment?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Would you like to say that to us, Senator Sieck?

SENATOR SIECK: You still have LB 21 up on the board and that is the reason I....

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, we skipped to LB 15.

SENATOR SIECK: Okay. Yes, I wish to withdraw LB 15, the amendment that I proposed, and discovering that the committee amendments addressed that problem and I would like to get on record that the committee amendments do solve the problem that I had addressed and they are granted a leave of absence, and that the board of directors then will be able to set their own policies as far as hiring or anything like this. I think that addresses the problem.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Are there any objections to the withdrawal of the amendment? If not, it is withdrawn.

CLERK: I have nothing further on the bill, Mr. President.
