

February 16, 1983

LB 414

PRESIDENT: The vote is in the affirmative. The House shall go under Call. All members return to the Chamber, assume your particular seats and record your presence. The House is under Call for the purpose of attempting to get the vote squared away on the amendment to LB 414. The House is under Call. All members return to the Chamber, record your presence. The Executive Board is meeting, so we will wait a few minutes to see if they can't come back in. The House is under Call. All members record their presence. Pending is the Beutler amendment to LB 414 and the House is under Call. All members record their presence. Senator Carsten and Senator Pirsch are excused. Senator Chambers, do you care to record your presence. Senator Marsh is here. Yes, permission is given to take call in votes.

CLERK: Senator Hoagland voting yes.

PRESIDENT: Quiet in the Chamber, please, for the taking of votes.

CLERK: Senator Marsh voting yes. Senator Sieck voting no. Senator Beyer voting no. Senator Higgins voting no. Senator Morehead changing from yes to no. Senator Kahle voting no. Senator Barrett voting no. Senator Chronister voting yes. Senator DeCamp voting yes. Senator Schmit voting yes. Senator Lamb voting yes. Senator Vard Johnson voting yes. Senator Nichol voting yes. Senator Wagner voting yes. Senator Abboud voting no.

PRESIDENT: Clerk will record the vote.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 14 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of Senator Beutler's amendment.

PRESIDENT: The amendment is adopted. Motion on the desk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Chambers would move to amend the bill. (Read the Chambers amendment as found on page 546 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, I think the Christian Science Monitor is one of the best newspapers in the world, but receiving it is not enough to make me vote in behalf of an amendment which people say goes strictly to their church. Now if you are going to respect religions, then you ought to respect everybody's religion. It is not the place for the Legislature to say that