LB 24, 33, 33A, 44,
50, 59, 204A

SPEAKER NICHOL PRESIDING

SPEAKER NICHOL: Ladies and gentlemen, we have with us this morning Dr. Robert Palmer of the Westminster Presbyterian Church for our prayer.

DR. PALMER: Prayer offered.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Thank you, Dr. Palmer. It is always good to have you with us. Roll call. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: There is a quorum present, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Just an announcement or two. First of all, from across the state we have forty members of the WIFE, Women Involved In Farm politics, with us in the North balcony, Elaine Stuehr, President, from Bradshaw. Would you please welcome the Wives to Nebraska's Legislature. Incidentally, I saw some good looking cookies out in the rotunda and some coffee and maybe some other soft drink out there and I hope they are for us, so at your leisure wander out there if you like and see if you can beg a cookie from them. Thank you for attending the Legislature. We are glad to have you with us. Any suggestions you have, tell your senator from your district and maybe he or she will heed what you have to say, but thanks again for coming. Secondly, may I remind you today is priority bill day. Please get them to me by noon if you would please so that you don't miss out. Also, committee chairmen, same thing applies for committee priority bills. Mr. Clerk, do you have any corrections to the Journal?

CLERK: I have no corrections, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: How about messages, reports and announcements?

CLERK: Mr. President, new A bill, LB 204A, offered by Senator Wesely. (Read LB 204A by title for the first time as found on page 909 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, I have an Attorney General's opinion addressed to Senator Carsten regarding LB 59; one to Senator Vard Johnson regarding LB. . . .(See pages 909-912 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, your Enrolling Clerk presented to the Governor for his approval bills read on Final Reading as of last week. (Re: LB 24, 33, 33A, 44 and 50.)

Mr. President, a communication from the Governor to the
