it, you can object to my withdrawing it.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Goodrich. Oh, excuse me, the motion has been withdrawn. Oh, that was an objection. I believe that under the rules the proponent of the motion may withdraw it without objection. Now then are we ready to read the bill, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: I think I have a motion, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: No, not another one.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Vard Johnson would move to return the bill, purpose being to strike the enacting clause.

PRESIDENT: The same, that is out of order.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: For the purpose of speaking.

PRESIDENT: All right, go ahead and speak, Senator Vard Johnson. Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: I have a motion to suspend the rules and vote on the bill, Mr. President. That was before Senator Vard Johnson's.

PRESIDENT: The Haberman motion apparently was filed before the Vard Johnson motion so the Clerk will read the Haberman motion.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Haberman would move to suspend the rules and vote on final passage of LB 410 without further motions to return.

PRESIDENT: Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, we have been about an hour on this issue and I think we have had enough debate and enough motions and enough amendments and I just ask the body to give us 30 votes to suspend the rules and vote on the bill, vote it up or vote it down.

PRESIDENT: The motion is to suspend the rules. Yes, Senator Johnson.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Yes, Mr. Speaker, that is a debatable motion. For that reason I am going to speak. The reason I put my motion up after Senator Chambers withdrew his is because I did want an opportunity to speak. I was not particularly concerned about the Hoagland amendments. I am more concerned
