LB 56, 975-978

Legislative Journal.) 28 ayes, 13 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to advance the bill.

SENATOR BEUTLER: LB 56 advances. Mr. Speaker...Mr. Clerk, did you have some things to read in?

CLERK: One item, Mr. President. Actually three items. Three new bills. (Read titles to LB 975-978 as found on pages 374-75 of the Legislative Journal.) That is all I have.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. Speaker, how did you wish to proceed at this point in time?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, I think we will adjourn for the day. I just wanted to say something about tomorrow. We will take up Senator Warner's constitutional amendment number one, among other things, and, of course, we will continue with General File. If I might have their attention a minute so I don't have to repeat.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Could the Speaker have your attention, please.

SPEAKER NICHOL: For tomorrow...we have made great strides this week and I really appreciate it and you have been great, all of you, even though some of you didn't vote for my bill, but you have been great in wheeling things along. I think tomorrow we will probably wind up about one o'clock, just go through the noon hour and wind it up so some of you can get home early and make a better weekend for some of you. So once again thank you for all your help this week.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Hannibal, if you wish, you can make a successful motion today by making it a motion to adjourn.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Did you say, sine die? Is that what you said? No. Mr. Chairman, I move we adjourn until tomorrow morning at nine o'clock.
