LB 1124

SENATOR LANDIS: Senator McDonald, as the one with the shortest tenure, if you would stay for the purposes of making an adjournment motion. Otherwise, the Legislature could be at ease, no further business before the body.

CLERK: Mr. President, new bill, LB 1124 offered by the Revenue Committee on behalf of the Governor. (Read title to LB 1124 for the first time as found on page 624 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. There being no further business, the Chair recognizes Senator Goodrich.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Mr. President, I move we adjourn until nine o'clock tomorrow morning, January 27th.

SENATOR LANDIS: Is that a record vote, Senator Goodrich, or just a voice vote? Tuesday until nine o'clock. Senator Carsten.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Point of personal privilege, Mr. Speaker.

SENATOR LANDIS: Although the motion to adjourn usually takes precedence over everything else in this exceptional...

SENATOR CARSTEN: Thank you for your courtesy.

SENATOR LANDIS: ...case, the Chair recognizes you.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Thank you for your courtesy and help.

SENATOR LANDIS: Certainly. The question is shall we adjourn until nine o'clock on Tuesday morning. All those in favor say aye. Opposed nay. The motion carries.
