LR 228

voting, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion fails. At the risk of editorializing, the Chair was told the other night that there are two parties in the Legislature, Conservative and Ultraconservative. We move on. Do you have matters to read into the record, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, I do. Your committee on Education whose Chairman is Senator Vickers to whom was referred LB 858 instructs me to report the same back to the Legislature with the recommendation it be advanced to General File; 881 General File, 890 General File, 993 General File.

Mr. President, new A bill, 694A (read for the first time by title). (See page 716 of the Legislative Journal.)

Your committee on Enrollment and Review respectfully reports they have carefully examined and engrossed LB 14 and find the same correctly engrossed, 38A, 115, 171, 278, 475, 480, 527, and 775, correctly engrossed.

PRESIDENT: Very well, we are to move into reading. The Chair will technically raise the Call but it shouldn't make any difference because members are to be in their seats during the time of Final Reading. Will members please take their seats. Final Reading is about to begin. Members are to be in their seats during Final Reading please. If members will please take their seats, we can proceed with Final Reading on LB 9. Not until members are in their seats. (Gavel) Final Reading is about to begin. Members are please asked to take their seats so we can begin Final Reading. Members, please take your seats so that we can begin Final Reading. If the little discussion groups around the Chamber would postpone their activity, we could all take our seats to begin Final Reading. All members in your seats please for Final Reading. Sergeant, thank you for reminding the members to take their seats. Thank you. All members are to be in their seats during Final Reading. The Clerk will proceed with LB 9.
