

February 29, 1984

LB 360, 756, 761, 692

take a vote whether we wish you many more or not but Bev Rempter over under the north balcony has a big donut for you, Senator Sieck, and for those of you who don't have a birthday today, they have donuts for you over there. So, Senator Sieck, we do wish you a Happy Birthday and you only have a birthday every four years so that is why I guess he is only 17 years old even though he may look 21 or 22. So, Happy Birthday, Senator Sieck. Have you all checked in please? Please record your presence so I don't have to call your name and embarrass you. Please record your presence. Senator Lowell Johnson, Senator Howard Peterson, Senator Haberman. We are looking for Senator Wesely, Senator Rod Johnson, Senator Vard Johnson, Senator Abboud. Senator Haberman, why don't you punch your button so I don't have to keep calling your name. Please, thank you. Senator Hoagland, excuse me, you are punched in. Pardon me. Now we are supposed to be in our chairs, Senator Hoagland, so this is what throws me. You know you are a problem child to me this morning. We are looking for Senator Wesely and Senator Rod Johnson. Sergeant-at-Arms, how are you doing with Senator Rod Johnson and Senator Wesely? Please punch in, gentlemen. Okay, we will go with the roll call. Would you please return to your seats please and we will start when you get to your seats. Senator Chris Beutler, you are holding up the process. Let's go. Let's go. (Gavel.) Senator Beutler, let's go. Okay, please pay attention and hold it down so we can hear your response. Mr. Clerk, roll call vote on the advancement of the bill.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See pages 1184-1185 of the Legislative Journal.) 23 ayes, 23 nays, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The bill fails to advance. The Call is raised but I urge you to please stick around closely so that when there is a Call of the House we can get ahold of you promptly and not waste time such as we have been doing this morning. We will move on to LB 692.

CLERK: Mr. President, right before that, if I may. Senator Fenger would like to add his name to LB 761.

Public Works whose Chair is Senator Schmit reports 756