

March 1, 1984

LB 591, 723
LR 2

and then we will have our facts more together. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Very well. We will pass over LR 2CA at the present time. Next onto LB 591 and we are on Final Reading. Members are properly to be in your seats during Final Reading, please. Final Reading. Members to be in your seats during Final Reading. If the Sergeant-at-Arms could gently suggest to the members that we go to Final Reading, we will proceed. Members are properly to be in their seats during Final Reading. The Clerk will proceed with LB 591.

CLERK: (Read LB 591 on Final Reading.)

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 591 pass with the emergency clause attached? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Motion is to pass LB 591 with the emergency clause. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? The Clerk will record the vote.

CLERK: 42 ayes, 0 nays, 1 present and not voting, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The bill is declared passed with the emergency clause attached. The Chair would like to announce that Senator Higgins has guests in the north balcony this morning. They are 57 Sixth Grade students together with four teachers who are Joan Chapin, Carol Milliner, Candice McDermott and Connie Boysen. They are visiting from Walnut Hill Elementary School in Omaha. We welcome you to the Legislature. For the benefit of the students who are visiting the Legislature on this the anniversary of our statehood, 117th year of statehood, the Chair would explain that we are in the process of Final Reading which is the final enactment of bills that have been previously debated and are well in the minds of the members so that the text is on the desk of each member and the Clerk is reading them for the third time as required by the Constitution. The next bill, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Read LB 723 on Final Reading.)