LR 295

SENATOR GOODRICH: First of all, how does he relate to Mr. Perry? Isn't there a Mr. Perry who is representing somebody in this thing?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Mr. Perry was a special prosecutor hired by the Attorney General's Office to represent the State of Nebraska in connection with the tort claim, in connection with the tort claim, and that is what he has done. Mr. Kopf would be the counsel representing the State of Nebraska in connection with the impeachment proceeding in the Nebraska Supreme Court.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Only the impeachment proceeding?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Only the impeachment proceeding.

SENATOR GOODRICH: And where does he come from?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: He comes from Lexington, Nebraska. He has been the lawyer that we have been using for the last two and a half months.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Okay, that is satisfactory.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you, Senator Goodrich. Senator Carsten, the last remaining light on this resolution.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Mr. President, and members of the Legislature, I would like to ask Senator Johnson a couple of questions if I may.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Yes.

SENATOR CARSTEN: First of all, realizing that starting tomorrow we have got three more hearings scheduled as far as the Commonwealth Committee is concerned. Is Mr. Kopf going to be able to devote his time as he has in the past for our hearings to those three that are now so scheduled?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: That is a hard question, Senator Carsten. Actually, we will do the hearings tomorrow, no if,
