LB 561, 928
LR 344, 345

PRESIDENT: The Clerk has matters for the record.

CLERK: Yes, sir. Mr. President, Senator Clark would like to add his name to LB 561 as co-introducer.

Mr. President, study resolution LR 344 (read introducers) calls for a study to assess the mental health needs of children and adolescents in Nebraska. 345 by the Health Committee calls for a study to examine the current issues concerning the Nebraska Employment Security Law, Business and Labor Committee, excuse me. (See pages 1988-1999 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, your committee on Enrollment and Review reports they have carefully examined and engrossed LB 928 and find the same correctly engrossed. That is signed by Senator Rod Johnson as Chair. (See pages 1989-1991 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, I have the report from the Appropriations Committee regarding certain line-item veto reductions by the Governor and the Appropriations Committee response to that will be inserted into the Journal.

PRESIDENT: The Legislature will be at ease while we prepare for the ceremonies concerning our former members.

AT EASE

PRESIDENT: Is Senator Foote and Senator Rasmussen in the Chamber? If they would come forward please. Senator Foote and Senator Rasmussen, Ross Rasmussen, if you would come forward. If we will come to order please, I assume by now, Mr. Sergeant at Arms, have you placed all of these visitors in the right position. We will come to order please. On behalf of the current serving Legislature, it is my privilege as Presiding Officer to welcome our former members back into this historic Chamber which we have referred to it usually through the years as in the generic term of just the Legislative Chamber. But this year as a result of some active people from the Republican River Valley, this Chamber
