

March 28, 1984

is now known as the George W. Norris Chamber. So that is what you are sitting in right now. Now we will have the members, former members introduced as much as possible by former members, and if you apparently see that you are being missed, we will just have to wait for your own devices to stand and protest and introduce yourself. We will start in the front row and go to the back starting with Senator Clark over here, and if any member has someone to introduce, he will stand and introduce a former member or members. If he has not, he will so indicate. Senator Clark, pass. Senator Jacobson. Senator Labeledz, do you have anybody to introduce?

SENATOR LABEDZ: Thank you, Lieutenant Governor. As representative of District 5 which is South Omaha, I am very pleased to have with me today John P. "Red" Munnelly who was a State Senator from 1957 to 1961 when he resigned to become Postmaster. He also was an OPPD Director and I must say that between John P. "Red" Munnelly and Eugene T. Mahoney, I had two great teachers and in no way can I ever replace either one of them and I am certainly proud that I am holding the seat now that they held previously but will never do it as well. Senator John P. "Red" Munnelly.

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp, pass.

SENATOR DECAMP: But I would like to tell you all hello.

PRESIDENT: Now you are not campaigning now, Senator.

SENATOR DECAMP: No, there is nobody here. Wylie, Bill Wylie was from my District, is from my District and he is normally around.

PRESIDENT: He is usually around.

SENATOR DECAMP: But he is not today.

PRESIDENT: Can't produce him, right. Senator Howard Peterson. Senator Lowell Johnson.

SENATOR L. JOHNSON: Mr. President, members of the Legislature and distinguished guests, all, I have the
