CLERK: Mr. President, your committee on Enrollment and Review reports 255, 372, 372A, 416, 568A, 751, 751A, 783, 800, 900, 932, 942, 971, 1010, 1058 and 1060 all reported correctly engrossed. (See pages the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, I have the certificates for bills that have been overridden the last few days.

SPEAKER NICHOL: While the Legislature is in session and capable of transacting business I propose to sign and do sign Certificate vetoing LB 758 and LB 1129 and LB 1128. (See pages 2189-2191 of the Legislative Journal.)

We have some guests in the north balcony of Senator Beutler. There are 60 students in the fourth grade from Randolph School in Lincoln. Miss Mowrey and Miss Davis are their teachers. Would you please stand and be recognized. And Senator Goll of Tekamah has some guests in the north balcony. They are 15 students of the American Government class from Bancroft-Rosalie School in Bancroft, Nebraska. Mr. Naden is their teacher. Would you please stand and be recognized. You are about to witness a phenomenon in Nebraska called Final Reading and you've seen this gentleman on TV that talks very fast and he goes about half as fast as our Clerk in this Legislature in reading bills on Final Reading. You won't be able to understand him but you will know he is going fast. The Constitution requires that this be done before any vote can be taken on Final Reading. So in case you wonder what is happening that is what will be happening shortly. If you would please return to your seats, we will begin Final Reading. If you would please return to your seats we will continue with Final Reading. I hate to be this way, but will you please return to your seats so we can begin Final Reading. We are holding up the progress. The ladies are all in their seats but the gentlemen are not. Oh, oh, I misspoke. I was wrong. Proceed, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Read LB 682 on Final Reading.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: All provisions of law relative to procedure
