

presume. We'll try to get your button fixed. Mine was on the fritz yesterday so they apparently transferred my problem over to you. You're welcome. Record, Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: 31 ayes, 0 nays on adoption of the resolution, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The motion carries. In a few minutes Chief Justice Krivosha will be coming to visit with us and I have chosen a committee to usher them in and they are Arlene Nelson, Jackie Smith, Jerry Miller, Jerry Chizek and Dennis Baack. At the time the Supreme Court Justice will, in a few minutes, arrive at the rear of the Chambers and I do not know whether the entire Supreme Court is coming with him or not, but please adjust accordingly. So we will be at recess for a few moments until they arrive.

EASE

SPEAKER NICHOL: (Mic not activated immediately)...wife, Sue, have a new boy at their household, not named yet, but it is seven pounds, eight ounces, and I understand everything is going as planned and Senator Hall is very happy about everything, so I think we should let him know we appreciate his activities in the past. Tim, congratulations.

The Chair recognizes the Sergeant-at-Arms.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Mr. Speaker, your committee now escorting His Honor Norman Krivosha, Chief Justice of the Nebraska Supreme Court.

SPEAKER NICHOL: (Gavel.) Ladies and gentlemen, Norman Krivosha, Chief Justice for the State of Nebraska. Judge Krivosha.

CHIEF JUSTICE KRIVOSHA: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Before I begin there are two very brief matters I would like to take care of, if I might. The first is to advise you that I intend not to remain more than 30 minutes this morning. And the second is that just before I left my Chambers to come to yours I received a call from the Governor who asked whether I would mention the following senators. I'll do that now before I begin. Senator Daniel Lynch, Senator Ron Withem, Senator Emil Beyer, Senator Gerald Conway, Senator James
