ready.

CLERK: Mr. President, new bills. (Read by title for the first time LBs 486-493 as found on pages 292-294 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, new resolution, LR 25 by Senator Schmit. (Read by title for the first time. See pages 294-295 of the Legislative Journal.)

(Read by title for the first time LB 494-495 as found on pages 295-296 of the Legislative Journal.)

Finally, Mr. President, Senator Hefner would like to announce a meeting of the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee for January 31. (See page 296 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, the final bill that I have this morning is LB 496. (Read by title for the first time as found on page 296 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: Ladies and gentlemen, that seems to be about it. Just a reminder, tomorrow we'll start up again at ten o'clock in the morning and of course you know that we are going to be off Wednesday, Thursday and Friday this week. We will start up a week from today and we will start a week from today at ten o'clock also because no bills will be back. How many did we wind up with today, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: 72 meritorious proposals were introduced.

SPEAKER NICHOL: And our count is now what? What is our overall count?

CLERK: Oh, overall count is 496 separate pieces of legislation.

SPEAKER NICHOL: 496, okay. Senator Jackie Smith, do you have a suggestion for us?

SENATOR SMITH: Mr. President, I make a motion that we adjourn until tomorrow, January 22, at ten o'clock.
