

EASE

CLERK: Mr. President, while we are waiting I have amendments to LB 548 from Senator Landis to be printed in the Journal. (See pages 847-848 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: That will be added to the record.

CLERK: Thank you.

PRESIDENT: You're welcome.

CLERK: My pleasure.

PRESIDENT: The Chair will take a privilege, that he rarely has in this Chamber, this morning of introducing to you a guest of his own. My wife, Nancy McGinley is under the north balcony. If she would stand and be recognized, I would ask you to welcome her to the Legislature. We're going to proceed, to make the time worthwhile here, and proceed into Final Reading for a little while, before the Mother ceremony. Members will please take your seats. (Gavel.) Members, please take your seats for Final Reading. Senator Withem, Senator Wesely, Senator Conway, Senator Rupp, if you would all take your seats we will move into Final Reading and push a few bills along. The Clerk will read LB 101e.

CLERK: Mr. President, the first item I have on 101e is a motion by Senator Higgins. Senator Higgins had amendments pending on page 624. Senator, I understand you wish to withdraw?

PRESIDENT: Senator Higgins, you have a motion pending on LB 101e.

SENATOR HIGGINS: Mr. Chairman, in the interest of saving time for the Legislature, and because I'll be back next year, I am going to withdraw that amendment. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Is there objection? Hearing none, it is so ordered. Thank you, Senator Higgins. Members will please take your seats. We will move into Final Reading.

CLERK: (Final Reading of LB 101e.)
