

PRESIDENT MCGINLEY PRESIDING

DR. PALMER: (Prayer offered.)

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Chaplain Palmer. Members, please record your presence for roll call. I guess we can record the roll, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: There is a quorum present, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Quorum present, the Legislature is in session. (Gavel.) Are there corrections to the Journal?

CLERK: No, sir, no corrections.

PRESIDENT: Matters for the record.

CLERK: I have none.

PRESIDENT: Well, for heavens sakes.

CLERK: That's what I thought.

PRESIDENT: Catch me unawares here. I haven't got my crossword puzzle finished yet. Resolutions, number 77.

CLERK: Mr. President, 77 offered by Senator Hefner, found on page 1183 of the Journal. (Read.) That resolution, Mr. President, is found on page 1183 of the Journal.

PRESIDENT: Senator Hefner.

SENATOR HEFNER: Mr. President, yes, this is correct. Mr. President and members of the body, this is LR 77 on page 1183 and I can't figure out a better way to start out Wednesday morning, March 27. Now let me explain this resolution and I'm sure that some of the rest of you will want to talk for this resolution. This resolution designates Miss Nebraska as the official hostess of the State of Nebraska this year and for the years to come. Other states are designating their representatives in the Miss America Pageant as the official hostesses for their respective states and so I thought it proper, I thought it proper for our state, the State of Nebraska, to do the same. Many young talented women participate in the Miss Nebraska Pageant every year. I believe that we should recognize, we
