

course, is consideration of LR 32.

PRESIDENT: Oh, excuse me.

CLERK: It was offered by the Speaker at the request of the Governor, Mr. President. (Read.) The resolution was referred to the Constitutional Revision and Recreation Committee for public hearing. It was advanced to General File. Yesterday, Mr. President, there was a motion to adopt committee amendments which prevailed. We then had a motion offered by Senators Haberman and Hefner to indefinitely postpone. That laid the resolution over to today. That is now pending before the Legislature.

PRESIDENT: Senator Haberman or Hefner. Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: I'm going to ask for a call of the house.

PRESIDENT: Call of the house has been requested. In Congress that means...suggests the absence of a quorum. Question is, shall the house come under call? All those in favor say yes, opposed say no. The Clerk will read the vote.

CLERK: 19 ayes, 1 nay to go under call.

PRESIDENT: Motion prevails. The house is under call. Members of the Legislature in the Chamber and throughout the Capitol Building, you are requested to come to the Legislative Chamber. The house is under call. Speaker Nichol, would you record your presence. Senator Pirsch, Senator Chizek, would you record your presence and, Senator Beutler, also record your presence. Senator Chambers, record your presence. Senator Schmit, put on your green light this morning, Senator Schmit. Senator Higgins, record your presence please. Senator Schmit, record your presence please. Senator Labedz. Senator Schmit, please record your presence. Has everyone recorded their presence? Senator Haberman. Senator Haberman, there are 42 members that have reported. I think we can assume that the others are excused until they arrive. You may proceed. The house is under call. The Chair recognizes Senator Haberman.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, you all know the issue, which is to put on the constitutional ballot to elect the regents. Now if you
