

not shirk our responsibility and pretend that things always stay the same. I think one way we can do that, with an organization that spends almost one-fourth of the state budget, is to advance LR 32, have some good debate on it again on Select File just as we have this morning. I urge you to advance the bill. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: The motion is to advance LR 32. All those in favor vote yes, opposed vote no. Motion is to advance LR 32. Please record your vote. The Chair will allow 15 seconds for recording of your vote. Please record your vote, aye or nay, on advancing LR 32. Five seconds. Senator Hoagland.
