

to where the accident happens, you better hope that somebody guesses right. You better hope it is during the daytime hours and a telephone is handy so they can call somebody and find out. Now I have indicated to you and I have been as honest and up front as I know how to be, this is a priority bill. It is a bill that I think is very important, but I am also cognizant of the concern that we do not make something that is more stringent or that we do something in some fashion that will restrict movement across state lines. So for that reason I have indicated to you that I will, in fact, bracket this bill on Select File and will wait until we find out exactly what we can and cannot do before we proceed next year. And I have also indicated to you my own willingness to do it on General File and why. You know, I have been around here long enough to know what can happen on General File. Strange things can happen on General File even to bills that people say are good bills because of some of the pressures from certain folks outside of this body. Now I have indicated to you that if there is any problem with the bill next year, if we cannot get it in fashion that will do what I am indicating to you I want it do, then I will kill the bill myself a year from now. With that, I would urge you to adopt my amendment to the committee amendments and then adopt the committee amendments, Mr. President. Thank you very much.

PRESIDENT: The motion is to adopt the Vickers amendment to the committee amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk. Senator Barrett, did you ask for a call of the house?

SENATOR BARRETT: How many...

PRESIDENT: How many are excused, Pat?

SENATOR BARRETT: How many are excused?

PRESIDENT: Nine members are excused. The call might get a few, huh? Do you want a call of the house, Senator?

SENATOR BARRETT: I hate to do it but a call and we will take call ins.

PRESIDENT: All right. The motion is for the house to come under call. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no.
