LR 313

the argument. It is up to the body to decide what they want to do, Mr. President. Thank you.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Thank you. The question is the adoption of the resolution. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of LR 313.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The resolution is adopted. If I could have your attention just a moment, please. We do have a resolution here that will be entered today and presented to tomorrow which recognizes the death of Julia Lundy who is the mother of our member, Senator Ray Lundy. All of those of you who wish to sign the resolution may do so at the Clerk's desk during the session today and we'll take it up tomorrow. Mr. Clerk, do you have something that you'd like to say?

CLERK: Mr. President, a series of items to read in at this time, if I might. Senator Beutler would like to add his name as co-introducer to LB 850.

Mr. President, Banking Committee will hold a session underneath the north balcony now, Banking Committee, north balcony, now.

Senator Lynch would like to add his name to LB 91.

SPEAKER NICHOL: No objections? So ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have notice of hearing, an informational hearing on LB 825 by the Banking Committee. That is signed by Senator DeCamp.

Mr. President, new bills. (Read LB 935-938 for first time by title. See page 247 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: We'll go back to rules. May I say that wherever we wind up today, tomorrow we must take up LB 825 which has to do with a certain banking bill as regards to Martin Luther King Day, and it is necessary that we do it this week. So we'll do that first thing tomorrow, regardless of where we wind up today. So I just wanted to let you know that so you won't be surprised. We'll go back
