

come here next Monday at nine o'clock. So off Friday, on Monday, and Final Reading tomorrow morning. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Most welcome. We are ready now for resolutions. Has Senator Abboud arrived? Take up LR 328 of Senator Marsh.

CLERK: Mr. President, LR 328 is offered by Senator Higgins. It is on page 532 of the Journal. It commemorates the death of Mr. Gordon MacRae.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Marsh. (Gavel.)

SENATOR MARSH: I am back. Yes, thank you. I am back at the wrong desk but the mike is turned on so I will speak from here. Gordon MacRae has been an important figure in the lives of many of our families through the years. His excellence of voice and training contributed to pleasure for millions of persons in the United States and other parts of our world. His loss will be felt. His family has Nebraska roots. His wife and her sister and families are from Sterling, Nebraska. I urge all of us to make our voice known as we express our sympathy to the family. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Is there further discussion on the resolution? If not, all those in favor of Senator Marsh's resolution, 328, vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Anyone wish to vote on the MacRae resolution? Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of LR 328.

PRESIDENT: The motion carries. The resolution is adopted. The Chair would like to announce that Senator DeCamp has guests under the north balcony this morning. There are his uncle, Mark, and Elizabeth DeCamp; and also Senator Baack under the north balcony has guests Dwight and Jo Baltensberger. If you guests would rise, we would like to recognize you and thank you for coming down to visit the Nebraska Legislature. LR 329.

CLERK: Mr. President, 329 is by Senators Lamb, Sieck, Wesely and Hefner. It is found on page 533. It asks the Legislature to recognize the members of the University of
