

Nebraska Cooperative Extension Service for their outstanding efforts in providing assistance to farm and ranch families experiencing financial distress.

PRESIDENT: Senator Lamb.

SENATOR LAMB: Yes, Mr. President and members, this is a resolution which, as the Clerk said, is on page 533 of your Journal which commends the University Extension Service in their efforts to mitigate the unfortunate financial plight that agriculture finds itself in these days, and listed there are a number of the activities that the Extension Service has participated in, in trying to help agriculture in these difficult times. I would invite your attention to the resolution and hope that you would join those of us who introduced this in commending the Extension Service for their good work in these times. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Is there further discussion on resolution 329? If not, all those in favor of the resolution vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted on LR 329 aye or nay? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 31 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the resolution.

PRESIDENT: The motion carries and the resolution is adopted. The Chair has been informed that Senator Abboud is on his way to the Chamber. That means we will not be at ease until eleven to wait for this resolution. We are ready to proceed with LR 327.

CLERK: Mr. President, 327 is by Senator Abboud. It is found on page 531 of the Journal. It asks the members of the Legislature to express their sympathy to the family of Lt. John E. "Ned" O'Brien and acknowledge the fine example this young man set for children, teenagers, and adults in Ralston and throughout the state.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Abboud.

SENATOR ABBOD: Mr. President, colleagues, I am up here for the resolution LR 327. He was a neighbor of mine, Ned O'Brien. We grew up together, him and his brothers, and he passed away last summer. He was in the Air Force. He was doing quite well in the Air Force and he was flying a jet in
