want to buy. So to conform with those two requests from the consumer and also from the agents and also in cooperation with the Department of Insurance, I would move that those changes be made as an amendment. (The Lynch amendment appears on page 895 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: Is there discussion on the latest amendment? If not, the motion is to adopt the Lynch amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of Senator Lynch's amendment.

PRESIDENT: The amendment is adopted. Senator Lynch, do you have anything more on the bill?

SENATOR LYNCH: No, except to say, Mr. President, that only two of the top ten insurance carriers in the state now do not even offer underinsured coverage. All the other eight do. I would ask for your consideration and advancement of this legislation.

PRESIDENT: Is there discussion on the bill? If not, the motion is to advance the bill from General File. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Record the vote.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the motion to advance the bill.

PRESIDENT: The bill is advanced. Next on the agenda is LB 603.

CLERK: Mr. President, 603 was offered by Senator Schmit and others. (Read title.) It was first introduced last January, referred to the Banking Committee, advanced to General File. There are Banking Committee amendments.

PRESIDENT: Senator Schmit.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Mr. President and members, the Banking Committee amendments make a major change in the bill but all that is left is that it establishes a uniform filing fee schedule and it clarifies that the debtor's residence is that which the debtor has indicated on the filing. I move
