

February 26, 1986 LB 243

you get ahold of. I never found yet an agency director who was worth his salt who didn't want to keep all the possible authority he could for himself, he or she. We are the same way as legislators, but the facts are that sometimes we need to look at it in a different manner. I suggest that LB 243 is a good bill, deserves your support and if the bill advances and you have a question on it, check with one of us and we'll try to work with you on it. Thank you very much, and I urge your support.
