Mr. President, Senator Sieck has amendments to 890; Senator Smith to LB 829; Senator Sieck to LB 474, Senator Wesely to LB 572; Mr. President, and Senator Hoagland to LB 289. (See pages 1445-51 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, Senator Hoagland would move to bracket LB 70 until March 25, 1986.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Any objections? Senator Chambers. Senator Hoagland, did you wish to speak about it? We have an objection is the reason I am (interruption).

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Yes, I recognize that, Mr. Speaker. Do we want to take this motion up today or Monday? I...I...

SPEAKER NICHOL: No, we are about through for today.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: So you would like to take the motion up today? The motion to bracket the death penalty bill? I would be happy to if that is your desire, although I would probably prefer to take it up Monday actually. Let me...it's a motion to bracket the bill until the Rulo case is over in Omaha so that any debates on the floor of the Legislature on the death penalty issue will not prejudice the jury deliberations in that case. That is the purpose of the motion.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, Senator Chambers. Pardon me?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Are we debating that motion?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I want to make a statement first. I owe this to the Speaker. I made some remarks when we were talking about overruling the Chair and I have to explain why I made the remarks. When Senator Pirsch came in and the Chair said it would take 22 votes, I knew that it didn't take...that her coming didn't change the number and what I thought was that the Speaker knew it took 21 but he was
