adopt the amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote nay. Please record your vote. The motion is an amendment by Senator Sieck to LB 890. Please record your vote aye or nay. Please record your vote aye or nay on the amendment offered by Senator Sieck to LB 890. Please record your vote. Have you all voted? Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays on adoption of Senator Sieck's amendment, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The amendment is adopted.

CLERK: Mr. President, I now have a motion from Senator Lamb. Senator Lamb would move to indefinitely postpone the bill. That would lay it over unless the introducer agrees to take it up at this time.

PRESIDENT: The introducer is not here, so...Senator Lamb. Oh, excuse me. Senator Sieck.

SENATOR SIECK: Take it up.

PRESIDENT: Take it up?

SENATOR SIECK: It is Lundy's priority bill, so we'll let Lundy argue the bill.

PRESIDENT: Very well. Senator Lundy, you are recognized. Well, first of all, Senator Lamb made the motion so I'll have to recognize him to speak on your own motion. Would you like that opportunity, Senator Lamb?

SENATOR LAMB: Yes, I would, Mr. President, thank you very much.

PRESIDENT: We'll give that to you. We'll give that to you today then.

SENATOR LAMB: Appreciate that. Well, ladies and gentlemen, I guess I'm surprised at what seems to be happening here and I guess I'm blowing into the wind because this bill seems to be pretty well greased, pretty well greased. It's a major bill. Maybe you're thinking about what you're doing here, but I'm not sure that you are. This bill allows an extra half cent sales tax in every village and city in the state, an extra half cent sales tax in every village and town and city in the state. Nobody seems to be too excited about that. Senator Vickers had
