

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Yes, this bill would say the Supreme Court is to act in an expeditious fashion.

SENATOR HABERMAN: What does that mean?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Quickly.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Do they do not do this now on other issues quickly?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: No, they do it slowly.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Well what is quickly and what is slowly?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Quickly means 60 days.

SENATOR HABERMAN: So you're saying that somebody is going to interpret this, you don't say 60 days?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: No. I have provided flexibility, but obviously...

SENATOR HABERMAN: You provide flexibility.

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Yeah, the word expeditious implies flexibility.

SENATOR HABERMAN: And that doesn't mean anything though. You're not tying the Supreme Court down...

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: No.

SENATOR HABERMAN: No. So it really doesn't mean too much. Now, another question. Does it take out about the case would be managed by two state senators?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: No, that stays in there.

SENATOR HABERMAN: The case will be managed by two state senators appointed by the Legislature. What would be the role of the people who, of the two state senators to manage the case?

SENATOR V. JOHNSON: Well, Senator Warner and I managed the last one that we did and our role was to sit in the Chamber, you know, look wise and august, but the real role of case managers
