LR 443

as I say, is it's just a little shot and a direction to maybe see if there are some other things that could be worked out. And as I say, nothing, absolutely nothing can be done without the full agreement of the parties involved and I acknowledge that in advance, but I'd like the chance, so I'll support Wesely's amendment.

PRESIDENT: Is there anyone else that wishes to speak on the Wesely amendment which John DeCamp seems to have agreed to? I have a whole list of lights here. I'd like to proceed if we can. If not, Senator Wesely, you may close on your amendment. Okay, we'll just vote on the Wesely amendment then. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. You are voting on an amendment offered by Senator Wesely to LR 443. Please record your vote aye or nay. You are voting on an amendment offered by Senator Wesely to LR 443. Please record your vote. Give you 20 seconds to record your votes. Ten seconds to record your vote on the Wesely amendment. Have you all voted? I'm going to call for the vote, Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Okay, I'd ask for a call of the house again.

PRESIDENT: A call of the house has been requested. All those in favor of calling the house into a call vote aye, opposed vote nay. Record the vote, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 9 ayes, 0 nays to go under call.

PRESIDENT: The motion carried. The house is under call. All members in the Chamber, please check in on the green board. Members outside the Chamber, please return to the floor, the house is under call. Senator McFarland, please. Senator Chizek. Senator Morehead, please. Senator Higgins, would you please turn on your green light, please. Senator Rupp. Senator Warner, Senator Lowell Johnson, Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DECAMP: Mr. President, I'll just pull the whole resolution.

PRESIDENT: Very well.

SENATOR DECAMP: Had an idea, can't help cats that don't want to be helped.

PRESIDENT: All right. The resolution has been withdrawn. And the call of the house is raised. Proceed...okay, we're back
