

brought to me by Senator Fisher. It is a four-footed furry creature.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And this is from what looks like a dictionary, so I think Senator Elmer will accept it, and I won't read the definition, but anybody who would like to see it, can see it, and it is a very alert, intelligent-looking little animal standing on its hind legs, and being supported by a long thick tail which is curved to, I think, give additional support. Senator Elmer is just having his education improved, and he thanked me. Now, Senator Elmer, that we know what a fisher is, is it your intention that the word in line 19 include our little furry friend whose acquaintance you have just made?

SENATOR ELMER: Senator Chambers, as I said before, in the context of the sentence, I am sure anyone that reads it would assume, as I have, that that is an individual engaged in trying to catch fish.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you for your answer, but you are a little broad in your saying anybody who reads it because I read it and I didn't assume that. I assumed that fisher means what fisher means, and in Game and Parks, none of their licenses refer to anybody who uses such a license as a fisher. So I think again we have a bit of drafting which subjects this bill to a humorous treatment. But the fact that it is a criminal law means that it is going to be strictly construed and you are not likely to get a prosecutor to bring it, if the person charged would have a lawyer of my modest abilities, and I am not even a lawyer.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Any further discussion? We're, I believe, advancing the motion...debating the motion to advance. Senator Elmer, you are recognized for close on the motion to advance LB 274.

SENATOR ELMER: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think that this simple little bill has had all said about it that needs to be at this time. I will, on Select File, offer some amendments to
