

it seems to me when that happens they ought to have some obligations and that's what I'm trying to do with this section is to say this doesn't apply to all employers, but it does apply to those that go out and engage in these kinds of recruiting activities. Thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Beutler. I'd like to pause one second if we could to introduce some guests of the Legislature in the north balcony from Elkhorn High School, guests of Senator Pedersen and the Legislature are Bill Koll, Mark Ritchie and 63 high school students, if you'd please stand. And in addition, a guest of Senator Lindsay also in the north balcony we have from the German Martial Fund Guarantees from the five Newlanders of Germany, there are seven members from that group. We are now discussing the Beutler amendment. Senator Vrtiska, do you wish to address the Beutler amendment? Senator Coordsen, the Beutler amendment. Senator Witek, the Beutler amendment. Senator Pirsch, the Beutler amendment.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the body, I think Senator Beutler is absolutely right on with this amendment. I cannot support the bill the way it is now and I am thinking that those, that this is directed to, are those companies who do recruit, who do perhaps cause the problem that Senator Chambers is wanting to address. But I'm not sure how this will limit the bill and if Senator Chambers would yield I'd like to ask him a question.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, I will.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Senator Chambers, how do you feel about this amendment?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: It does focus it because what it is saying, if you just got it on your desk and you're not familiar with the bill, it might be hard to blend it in, but the way the bill is right now, it does not restrict this provision to the companies who do the recruiting. So what Senator Beutler's amendment is saying...

SENATOR PIRSCH: It does not?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...that before these provisions come into
