

like this, I will let everybody know I have an agenda, and I would be as disruptive there as I am here. I'd tell them no group of white people are going to set rules to stop me from representing the interests that are going to be trampled by a group such as this, and they'd wonder why you all sent me there, and that's why I probably wouldn't be selected. But this is very serious, when we talk about the Constitution. Polls and surveys have been undertaken which including submitting to people a copy of the Bill of Rights. Some people thought it was the Communist Manifesto and said it should not be accepted in America. They have not read the Constitution. They don't know what the Bill of Rights are, and just because somebody is in the Legislature doesn't mean they know any more. There is a lot that has to be discussed but I wanted to be sure that the mere adoption of Senator Hall's amendment did not take Nebraska out of the column of ratifying because...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...if it did, we again can save some time by just scrapping the whole thing.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Schmitt wishes to announce that the following guests are visiting the Legislature, Judy Olson from Allen, Caryl Reed from Dakota City, Kay Maskell from Newcastle, Char Lahmann from Winnebago, Truman Fahrenholz from Allen, and Harvey Relitz from Emerson. They are from Senator Engel's and Senator Schellpeper's districts but they are postmasters and postal workers in town for the signing ceremony of LB 59. Will you all stand to be recognized please. And Senator Withem wishes to announce the following guests are visiting the Legislature. There are 75 fourth graders here this morning from Hickory Hill Elementary School at Papillion, Nebraska, with their teachers. They are in the north balcony. Will you all stand to be recognized please. Welcome. And, Senator Witek, your light is next, followed by Senators Kristensen, Hillman, Hall, and Crosby.

SENATOR WITEK: Madam Chambers...Madam Chairman, members of the body, I was talking to Senator Jensen near me, he said it is scary to see me agreeing with Senator Chambers. But I was with him most of the way on that, on that last talk. This concerns me so greatly. Many of the foundational things that concern me is this is not a bill, we will not have an opportunity to have more stages of debate on this. We did not have...there is no
