

then with the numbers that we have here take the vote one way, up or down, on the bill and be done with it. Senator Wesely, I'll give you a minute or so, whatever you need, on the opening.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members. I did tell Senator Bernard-Stevens and Senator Hartnett that, in fairness, I would vote for the reconsideration. We should give them another shot when 16 members were gone. It was really an unfair situation so though I continue to have concerns about the bill, I think we ought to vote for reconsideration and give them a fair chance at passing it.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Wesely. Your light is on on your own. There are no further lights on. Senator Bernard-Stevens, you're recognized to close.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: I give my whatever closing Senator Hartnett would like to have.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Hartnett.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Madam President (sic), I appreciate the comments of Bernard-Stevens for the reconsideration, and Senator Wesely, because there was only 33 people here the particular day. What it does it will allow private airports for public use to start qualifying, they won't...really, none of them will qualify, the one that I'm speaking about, the north airport, a person will have to put 500 to 600 thousand dollars, some money into it before we could qualify to even be thinking about public, so I'd ask for the reconsideration. Okay. Senator Bernard-Stevens.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Were you yielding Senator Bernard-Stevens' time back to him? Senator Bernard-Stevens.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Thank you and I want to yield a minute to Senator Kristensen.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator Kristensen.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, and, Senator Bernard-Stevens, I was one of those members who was present the day that this was discussed and my
