

the Chair asked me, is my little motion to bracket in writing? And it was and it was correctly written. And if I had put bracket to a day certain, he would have ruled it out of order under the suspension motion. But, under the suspension motion which allows my motion, you all are going to vote not so. I say that your rules are a lot of BS and you should vote against them next year too, and then you can do whatever you want to do. But I'm going to throw it up in your face every opportunity I get. How to stop this black man, not only do you amend the rules,...

PRESIDENT ROBAK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...change them and create new rules, you blatantly disregard the rule as it is written. Why go to law school to learn the law when you don't even know how to read English? Don't even know how to read English. I'm ashamed of you, but really I'm not because I'm not white. I am the contrast concept. I am the black man. I am at the shallow end of the gene pool but I've been trying to learn from my betters, from my superiors and my superiors tell me about writing laws and rules and following the rules to be civilized and then they disregard them. You're poor teachers all, but I learned well and, as King David said, I shall teach my teachers.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator, we are under call. We are on Final Reading. If senators would check in. All senators please check in. Senator Fisher, Senator Kristensen, Senator Engel, Senator Bromm, Senator Landis, Senator Pedersen, Senator Maurstad, Senator Matzke, Senator Hartnett, Senator McKenzie. Senator Engel, Senator Landis, Senator McKenzie. We're waiting for Senators Engel and McKenzie. The question before you is the motion to overrule the Chair. The Chair ruled that a bracket motion was out of order. As there are 48 senators here, it takes 25 votes to overrule the Chair. There's been a request for a roll call vote. Mr. Clerk, please proceed.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See page 2777 of the Legislative Journal.) 25 ayes, 12 nays on the motion to overrule the Chair.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The Chair is overruled. The Chair recognizes Senator Chambers to open on his bracket motion.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President and members of the
