

SENATOR COORDSEN: Senator Withem.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Yes, Mr. President and members of the body, I would move that the body stand in recess until 1:30 p.m. and would comment on that motion just to draw your attention to the agenda. This afternoon we will be dealing with, initially with a motion to withdraw LB 1107, offered by Senator Lindsay and then we will continue with the General File discussion that was initiated yesterday. You may want to notice LB 414A is not in fact an appropriations bill to provide for the operation of lotteries by licensed racetrack organizations. It is in fact a bill to pay for the operations of LB 414, Senator Schellpeper is not pulling a fast one on us up there, that was just a mistake in the way the agenda was printed.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you Mr. Speaker. The motion is to recess until 1:30. All of those in favor signify by saying aye, opposed. We are recessed.
