LB 1322

Senator Schimek, but my reaction is that this is not a negative...it's not what I'd like but it's not so negative that I can't accept it so...but, Senator Schimek, why don't I defer the rest of my time to you. I'm deferring the rest of my time to Senator Schimek.

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Madam President, members of the body. I'd just like to say I agree with Senator Wesely.

SENATOR CROSBY: About two minutes.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: And I think the amendment is acceptable.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Schimek and Senator Wesely. Did you want any more of your time, Senator Wesely? Senator Lynch. Senator Lynch, did you wish...

SENATOR LYNCH: I'm sorry, not on this amendment. We're going to talk about the bill yet and I'll talk then.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you. Senator Maurstad.

SENATOR MAURSTAD: Madam President, I don't see...is Senator Wehrbein on the floor that he could answer a question? I don't see Senator Wehrbein. I don't see the vice chair so I'll have to ask a former chairman of the committee. Senator Warner.

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Warner.

SENATOR MAURSTAD: Senator Warner, could you answer a question for me?

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Warner, will you yield for a question?

SENATOR WARNER: Yes, sir.

SENATOR MAURSTAD: I...if I understand your comment relative to having on the...that the A bill of 1322 would suffice relative to the administrative costs for the Department of Economic Development and they wouldn't need to then come in, in the future, relative to this with a bill. But as you recall the appropriation process, they would still need to identify any
