SPEAKER WITHEM PRESIDING

SPEAKER WITHEM: Let me have your attention, please, both senators on the floor and staff people in the offices. Been informed by the Bill Drafter's Office that all of the drafts that they have had requests for have been delivered to senators' offices. which means that if you've requested a bill being introduced, it should be in your hands now. I would think we ought to be able to get those bills circulated and get your signatures on them, up here on the desk for introduction by noon, I think. At noon, we will read in whatever we have and then entertain a motion for adjournment shortly thereafter. If there are any of you that have a particular problem with a particular piece of legislation that you won't be able to meet that noon deadline, you know, let us know and we'll see if it is something we can work with. Otherwise, if I don't hear from anybody, along about noon I'll be looking around the floor and seeing if there is somebody that'd like to make the motion to adjourn. So, noon is kind of the hour. Mr. Clerk.
