 LR 100, 101, 102

taken his own life, she did acknowledge during the conversation that probably because of her son's mental state that if he'd had to wait three days or five days, he would have probably still gone out and bought a gun and still committed suicide. And that's sad, that's sad. But that's something that none of us can control because that's the way life is dealt to certain people. So that, to me, is not a real reason to enter into the debate, except I just wanted you to know that that's some of the kind of conversations that I've had. Again, I have to tell you that the overwhelming number of people, at least the ones that have contacted me,...

SPEAKER WITHEM: One minute.

SENATOR VRTISKA: ...have been supportive of this kind of legislation. And again I repeat that when you represent people and they come to you and tell you that this is, they think, a good idea, then I feel it's an obligation that I have. And without a close, except to tell you that I did have a good time, and I was gone last week, and I hope that you all had a good time, too. Thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Vrtiska. Mr. Clerk, do you have some items for the record?

CLERK: I do, Mr. President. Committee on Education reports LB 789 as indefinitely postpone.
