April 1, 1997 LR 99, 100, 102, 103, 105

SENATOR ROBINSON: Madam President and members of the body, myself, along with Senator George Coordsen, would like to recognize Bob Erickson, who just completed his thirty-fifth year as head coach of the Doane College men's basketball team. Under Coach Erickson, his record was 581 wins and 163 losses, which is really quite phenomenal. In the beginning of 1996-97 season, Coach Erickson was ranked 19th on the list of winning active collegiate coaches on all levels, and whereas, Coach Erickson was inducted to the NAIA Basketball Hall of Fame on March 11, 1977, I present this resolution. I might add, he was a very ferocious competitor, even...Senator Maurstad had reffed some of his games and I think he could tell you how...what a ferocious competitor he was. I don't know what kind of a ref Senator Maurstad is, but that is just a side comment, so I would appreciate it if all of you would push your green in behalf of Senator Coordsen and myself. Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Robinson. LB 103.
