Transcriber's Office

May 13, 1997 LB 216, 389
 LR 127, 128, 129

Journal.) 19 ayes, 18 nays, Madam President, on the amendment.

SENATOR CROSBY: The amendment fails. I'll raise the call.
Mr. Clerk, do you have items for the record?

CLERK: Just very quickly, Madam President. Thank you. LR 127, (LR) 128, and (LR) 129 are study resolutions offered by the General Affairs Committee. Those will be referred to the Executive Board for reference. Senator...the next amendment I have...oh, I'm sorry. And then I also have amendments to LB 389 to be printed by Senator Maurstad. (See pages 1919-22 of the Legislative Journal.)

Madam President, Senator Chambers would move to amend. Floor amendment 257 (sic), Senator. Yeah, 257 (sic). (FA256 appears on page 1916 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President, members of the Legislature.
You know, I don't know what it is. Maybe it's because I did my civic duty, but I'm just so brim full of energy this morning I can't even sit down. There was a song that they made us sing when we were little bitty kids in church: "My soul is so happy I can't sit down." I don't see how that works with me since I lack a soul thanks to the way Senator Wehrbein put that curse on me the other day, but I do feel very full of energy, and if you all tap into it, you'll feel the same way. What this amendment would do is go to line 4 on page 2 and we would strike "county court". Then this three dollar fee would apply only on those filings in the juvenile court and the district court. Then if you had appeals to any of those courts, there would be an amount charged. But I have a question that I want ask of...I need to ask a lawyer this...Senator Brashear, I want to ask you a question and this...

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Brashear, will you yield for a question?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Yes, Madam President.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Brashear, this is not to bring you
