SENATOR WICKERSHAM: We will be...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Or would there be an adjustment?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: We will be in session next January, Senator, and that would be a decision for this body.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What do you think we would do if the money were not there to fund a cut for another year? Do you think we would just...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: If the downturn were...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Drastic.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...drastic, I think this body has always shown itself able to do what is responsible and appropriate for the citizens.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And that would mean you would not maintain that tax cut for that coming year, is that right?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: That's my belief, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now, wouldn't it be better to see what happens before you let the cut take effect and see if there'll be enough money for it?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Senator, we have already accumulated enough dollars to pay for the first year.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: It...can we do that and restore the money for the developmentally disabled, because that's where the Governor...that's how the Governor getting...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Senator, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...money to fund thing that we're doing?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: One minute.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Senator, I think you're asking about
