CLERK: I do, Madam President. Explanation of votes from Senator Raikes (Re: LB 23) and Engel (Re: LB 180, LB 485, LB 485A, LB 588, LB 269, LB 269A, and LB 138). SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you. Mr. Speaker, you wish to be...

SPEAKER WITHEM: Yes, Madam President. The last few evenings when we've been working late, the people would grab their lunch whenever they could and have done...we continued on with our work. Because we are dealing on Final Reading here where all members need to be present and we don't even have any long bills that we read anymore, I'm going to suggest that we stand at ease from now until 6:00 p.m. At 6:00 p.m., people come back in and we'll take up reading later on. It's also, I should point out, because of the high quality of the food tonight. I know everybody will want to concentrate on the excellent sausage and not be distracted by the activity on the floor. So...we will stand at ease until about 6:00 p.m.

SENATOR CROSBY: We are at ease.

EASE

SPEAKER WITHEM: (Microphone not activated immediately)...I would suggest that we return to our seats and everybody check in.
